LOCAL PLUMBING CONTRACTOR CATCHES TOP HONOR

Madison, WI, April 1, 2009 --- The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) awarded Monona Plumbing and Fire Protection, Inc. (MPFP), in Madison, the 2009 National CotY Award in the category of Residential Bath $30,000 to $60,000 in partnership with Lori Jolin Design.

One of the largest plumbing service providers in Dane County, Monona Plumbing and Fire Protection serves the residential and commercial markets for both new and existing construction throughout Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. This is the fourth CotY Award for MPFP.

President Brent Williams attributes strong alliances with other industry leaders for MPFP's successes in plumbing remodeling. Williams states, "Our 32 years in designing plumbing systems allows us the privilege of complementing the strength of partners like Lori Jolin Designs to produce functionally beautiful living spaces for the clients we work with."

Monona Plumbing and Fire Protection was presented the award at NARI's Evening of ExcellenceSM on March 28 at the Sheraton Atlanta, Atlanta, Ga.. The Evening of ExcellenceSM is widely considered to be the premier event of the year in the remodeling industry, and was attended this year by more than 250 of the industry's elite.

NARI members represent an elite group from the approximately 800,000 companies and individuals in the U.S. identifying themselves as remodelers.
